The High school ice hockey team added another victory on Tuesday, defeating the fast Waltham High team, two to one in a game played in the Waltham high rink. The ice in the rink was in poor condition, which handicapped both teams considerably. Arlington did not score until the second period, Hilliard and Lombard each caging the puck unassisted. The Arlington line-up was, Lombard, L. W.; Hilliard, C.; Wood, R. W.; Buckley, L. D.; Lane, L. D., and Chamberlain, G.

Alexander H. Rice has taken out nomination papers to be a candidate on the Arlington School committee. Freeman, 18 Linwood street, whose term of office also expires at the March meeting has likewise taken out nomination papers to succeed himself.

In last week's paper the Advocate announced that William M. Hatch of 12 Water street had taken out nomination papers. Already he has secured many signatures. The unexpired term of Bradford E. Swift, who resigned, was filled by the appointment of Mrs. Joseph W. Downs by the school committee last September, to serve until the March meeting. This one-year term will have to be voted upon by the citizens at the regular March meeting. Mrs. Downs has taken out nomination papers.

E. E. Stackpole, 39 Fairview avenue, has taken out nomination papers for Assessor. Augustus J. Powers, who was elected at the last March meeting to serve out an unexpired term of one year, will also be a candidate.

FOR BENEFIT OF THE PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

The bridge given at Hamburg Hall on Tuesday, Jan. 28, to create interest in the Boston Philharmonic Orchestra was most successful. There were twenty-five tables engaged in play. A novel feature of this bridge was the coupons given to each player which entitles the holder to a seat for any Sunday afternoon concert of the Philharmonic.

Mrs. Robt. Ashley and Mrs. Ed. L. Shinn were in charge of the bridge, and Mrs. Frank Garrett was in charge of the Mah Jong, with Mrs. Fred A. Hortter in charge of the tea. Throughout the afternoon candy was served by the Misses Helen and Pauline Bennett.

Town Votes To Have An Inspector Of Buildings

DHON GOPAL MUKERJI SPEAKS AT FORUM SUNDAY

The Arlington Forum on Sunday afternoon, at 3.45, January 23rd, in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, is likely to draw out a large audience, for the speaker will be Dhon Gopal Mukerji. Mr. Mukerji has appeared before an Arlington audience twice before, each time giving such satisfaction that the council felt justified in bringing him to Arlington once again.

A Hindu, born of a family of exclusive Grahmins, he was brought up and educated as a citizen of the old Hindu regime. At eighteen, from Calcutta University, he went to Tokio and thence to America and graduated from the Leland Stanford University in 1914. In his books, "Caste and Outcaste" and "My Brother's Face," Mr. Mukerji gives an insight into the life of India as it has never been given before. His subject for Sunday afternoon will be "An Eastern View of European Chaos."

The chairman of the Forum will be Prof. A. H. Rice and the ushers members of the Middlesex Sportsman's Association.

THE NORWEGIAN CLUB MET WITH MR. O. L. LORENTZEN

The Norwegian Guild—a Dramatic and Social Club originated two years ago by Norwegians of Boston and Greater Boston, met at the home of Mr. O. L. Lorentzen of Lansdown rd., Arlington, on Saturday evening, Jan. 15th. The evening was spent planning plays which the Guild will present during the year of 1927. "Hypocrisis" is to be the initial production with Robert Lorentzen in the leading male role. Other plays selected, upon which these talented Scandinavians will work, are: "The Four-flusher," "The Man in the Spats" and "Beware of Bootleggers," a highly amusing comedy-farce written expressly for the Guild by Oscar Ludwig the handsome young juvenile.

Many Greater Boston Women's Clubs have elected that the players present their works for them in order to compare the acting of these actors with the dramatic ability of American stage presentation.

All performers of the Guild speak English but Mrs. O. L. Lorentzen, and all the work she portrays is in pontomine.

WHY NOT PUT THE OLD STOP BACK

The attention of the Advocate has been called to the fact that there is a town by-law which states that all inward-bound electric cars shall come to a full stop just above the corner of Appleton street and Mass. avenue. This by-law was, it is said, enacted for the purpose of trying to make the corner safer than it otherwise can be if the cars are allowed to speed by the foot of the hill on which there is a good deal of traffic. When a new rearranging of the stops were recently made this one, the Advocate is informed, was discontinued. Would it not be wise to have it put back? There have been several narrow escapes from accidents witnessed at that corner recently.

NEW HOCKEY TEAM

There is a new ice hockey team in town to be known as the Arlington Hockey Club. The manager, John Harrington, is trying to arrange a schedule. His telephone number is Arlington 3851-J. This club will be made up of Edward Cook, left wing; Paul Salt, right wing; Donald Wood, center; Al Clifford, left defense; David Dale, right defense, and Dan Murphy, goal. The spare men on the team are Robert Mahoney, Joseph Chaisson, Ralph McEwen and John Harrington. This new outfit is out for games with any amateur or semi-professional team in or around Greater Boston.

Angela Caterino has purchased the James H. Shedd property at 28 Draper avenue.

The special town meeting held last evening resolved itself into a lengthy and warm debate relative to the adopting of a new by-law which would create the office of Inspector of Buildings. The town has a building inspector with definite duties, but in the opinion of the Finance Committee, who are trying to put expenses for the town, considered it time to change the by-law and create this new office. The committee recommended that this new inspector be an architect, builder or civil engineer who was competent to do the work and who would have charge of the alteration, repair and maintenance of all buildings now, or hereafter owned by the town, including all school houses, Menotomy Hall (Old Town Hall), Robbins Memorial Town Hall and the buildings of the town on Paul Revere road, Medford street and Summer street, and have charge of the construction of all such buildings and have authority in the name and behalf of the town to make contracts for such construction, provided always that no such construction involving an expenditure of over $1000 be valid unless first approved by the Board of Selectmen, who will appoint such building inspector or inspector of buildings. Prof. Alexander H. Rice, chairman of the school committee, argued against having the schools come under this provision, feeling that it would create a condition that would be detrimental to the efficiency of the school board. Many debated on the subject, but after an hour had been spent it was finally voted to take out the clause relative to the schools and insert a provision that this work be done under the direction of the School Committee. William A. Muller had another substitute to offer and urged that the words architect, builder or civil engineer be taken out and the words "in their opinion," (meaning the opinion of the selectmen) be inserted, the argument being that there were men who might not be either an architect, builder or civil engineer who were capable of filling the position. This also brought out some debate but was finally passed.

The moderator was directed to appoint a committee of three to consider the matter of sewers and sewer assessments and report at the annual town meeting. The moderator, Judge John G. Brackett, was also directed to appoint a committee of five to procure plans and estimates for a new Junior High School for East Arlington, to be erected on land owned by the town on Tufts street or any other land in that near vicinity.

The Board of Public Works asked that a regulation be adopted that would be added to the by-laws relative to the removal of ice and snow from the sidewalks adjoining property used for business purposes. This was argued for some time. Chairman William C. Fairchild explained that a new snow remover had been secured by the town and if the business men shoveled the snow out into the street before the remover came onto the job money could be saved. This by-law was adopted. Now the business men must remove the snow and ice within three hours between sunrise and sunset after each snow storm.

Quite a little debate came over the passing of a new by-law which will compel the business men to pay for the removal of ashes and rubbish from their places of business, but was finally passed.

By a unanimous vote the meeting authorized the Board of Public Works to discontinue the practice of charging rent on water meters. It was also voted to make the terms of office of the town clerk, treasurer and tax collector for three years instead of one and this will take effect at the annual meeting in March.

Under the reports of committees, Elliott R. Barker made the final reports for the committees sent out to erect the Peirce and the Hardy Schools. Each committee had erected the school within the appropriate time.

Arlington in Review

From the Files of The Arlington Advocate

IN 1877
Fifty Years Ago This Week

The ninth annual levee by Bethel Lodge No. 12, L. O. O. F., will be held in the Town Hall, on the evening of February 1st. It will be a brilliant party.

By reference to our special notices, it will be seen that St. John's Parish will hold service in their new chapel, corner of Academy and Maple streets, tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Rumor has it that the "Penitents" are arranging for a series of dancing parties in their hall during the remainder of the season. They are intended to be "private."

Last Wednesday evening there was quite a large audience in Union Hall, to witness the drama of "Down by the Sea," by the Arlington Heights Dramatic Club. The different parts were well rendered by those who took part. The entertainment closed with the farce, "Brother Bill and Me." All present seemed to be well pleased with the exercises of the evening.

The action of rival companies in spreading the report that the ice on Spy Pond was of so poor a quality that it was not worth harvesting, resulted in a more thorough investigation by the Addison Gage Ice Co., and the discovery that their harvest field was covered with a crop which so far as regards looks, as well as real quality, was never excelled and on Tuesday last they commenced filling their largest houses, on the lower side of the pond.

Next Monday evening the lady friends of Mt. Horeb Lodge, No. 19, L. O. L., will hold their third annual pound party in Menotomy Hall. A good time may be expected.

A horse belonging to Mr. Pitts was frightened by a snow slide from the roof of the Unitarian church on Friday morning and ran away. The shafts of the sleigh were broken.

IN 1902
Twenty-five Years Ago This Week

Arlington's popular speedway (Pleasant street) has been the scene of several hot brushes this week, and nearly all the owners of speedy horse flesh have had their favorites out for a frequent dash.

A committee from the Limerick Club, made up of former residents of this place, met with Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Durgin on Saturday evening to arrange for the usual banquet of the club. It will this year take place at the Quincy House, Boston. A spread was served by the hostess at the conclusion of the business.

With proper care by tree owners, the brown-tail moth can be exterminated.

School children have been enjoying sleighing parties during the week, having been a good substitute for the skating which was spoiled by the snow.

Mrs. C. A. Dennett, president of Arlington Woman's Club, entertained Mrs. Benjamin Guckenberger (Marjory Gerry) of Birmingham, Alabama, and her sister, Mrs. Wilder of Jamaica Plain, while the ladies were in town for Mrs. Guckenberger's recital.

At Crescent Hall, Arlington Heights, Feb. 11th, the Arlington Dramatic Club will present, "The Real Widow Brown," a comedy drama in three acts. Several of the young people prominently identified with the social life of that section will have parts in its production.

Little Pauline Winn was given a happy time by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Winn, of Russell terrace, on Tuesday. It was the fifth birthday and the playmates invited to celebrate the occasion, had a right royal good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Frost arrived home at Mrs. Geo. T. Freeman's on Pleasant street, Tuesday evening, from their wedding trip spent at Asheville, N. C. On the homeward route they remained over in New York for a brief stay, where they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Sawyer in a charming manner. Mrs. Sawyer made an evening party for the bride couple which was an agreeable and thoughtful attention and one of the many delightful events which marked the trip.

Last evening, Friday, January 17, the fourth in the Friday evening dances managed by Miss Alice W. Homer took place in Associates Hall. It was a pleasant party, as usual, and was chaperoned by two popular young patronesses, Mrs. Geo. C. Doliver and Mrs. J. Winslow Bailey. The music, as usual, was by Horne's orchestra. The next party occurs on Friday evening, Feb. 7th, at the same place.

The Altar Guild connected with Universalist church held a business meeting, with election of officers, at the home of Mrs. Fred S. Mead, 1026 Mass. Avenue, Monday afternoon. Several items of special importance were discussed, after which the following officers were elected: President, Miss Abbie Russell; vice-president, Mrs. Frank Bott; sec'y, Harry F. Fister; Treas., Mrs. W. A. Brooks.

Mrs. Chas. H. Swan of Bartlett avenue, has been spending the past few weeks with Mrs. Eugene Allen of Washington (formerly known as Hattie Doughty) and her sister, Miss Cora Butler, who is a teacher in the Hampton Institute for colored students at Hampton, Va.

Commencing Monday morning, Jan. 20, two blows will be sounded on the fire alarm at 6:45 a. m. and 6:45 p. m., instead of the one blow as heretofore.

REV. EDWARD A. MORRIS TO PREACH SERIES OF SERMONS

SIMEON J. DUNBAR DIES IN COLORADO SPRINGS

Mr. Simeon J. Dunbar died Jan. 13th, in Colorado Springs. Mrs. Peter Schwamb received a message from Prof. Loud of Colorado College on Sunday. Mr. Dunbar was formerly master of the Cutter School, and married the first assistant, Susan Schouler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Schouler, who lived at the corner of Walnut street and Mass. Avenue. The house still stands, although houses have been built in front of it.

Mr. Dunbar moved to Colorado Springs over 40 years ago on account of chronic pleurisy. The climate and the loving care of his wife restored his health, but Mrs. Dunbar died from a shock over twenty years ago. Her burial place is in the Schouler lot in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, and Mr. Dunbar has each Decoration Day sent a box of evergreen from the foothills of Pike's Peak to decorate her grave. Mr. Dunbar was about 85 years old.

—Mr. George Smith and daughter, Elizabeth, were among those sailing from New York on Jan. 12, under the auspices of Thomas Cook & Son, going by way of the Panama Canal to Hawaii, New Zealand, Australia, South Africa and South America, returning June 2nd.

The major part of this course will be conducted by Miss Mary L. Guyton, Assistant State Supervisor of Adult Alien Education. Specialists in the field will speak at several of the conferences. In addition to the conferences, demonstration lessons will be conducted with immigrant classes in several cities and towns in greater Boston.

Enrollment may be made at the first meeting of the class or at room 217, State House.

Mr. Charles M. Herlihy, State Supervisor of Adult Alien Education, will be glad to offer more definite information in regard to the course.

JOINT INSTALLATION OF PATRIOTIC ORGANIZATIONS

There gathered in G. A. R. Hall on Friday evening of last week a large company of men and women all in some way connected with the Grand Army of the Republic, and banded together to aid in what ever possible, the veterans of the Civil War, whose ranks are fast being depleted. It was the joint installation of Woman's Relief Corps 43, of Francis Gould Post, and Tent 76, Daughters of Union Veterans. Representatives from the different organizations affiliated with these occupied seats on the platform, also a representative for the Post 39, American Legion and G. A. R. veterans. There were also present visitors from other like organizations from surrounding cities and towns.

Officers of the Relief Corps were first installed by Mrs. Hattie Callahan, Department President, and suit, the latter from Brighton. The work was done in a splendid manner, with the following officers being inducted into office: President, Mrs. Ida F. Bowman, Sr. vice president, Mrs. Carolyn Morse, Jr. vice president, Mrs. Blanch Lewis, conductor, Mrs. Annie Collins, treasurer, Mrs. Minnie Barry, secretary, Mrs. Margaret Urquhart, chaplain, Mrs. Catherine Finley, guard, Mrs. McKenzie, asst. guard, Mrs. Bain, patriotic instructor, Mrs. Lila Russell, color bearers, Mrs. Lindsey, Mrs. Josephine Williamson, Mrs. Phoebe Teale, Mrs. Jennie Tucker, press correspondent, Mrs. Lennie M. Chapman.

The installing officer presented the retiring president, Mrs. Lila Russell, with a past president's gold badge, and the new president presented the installing officer and her suite each with a pretty souvenir.

The evening was then turned over to the Daughters of Union Veterans for their installation. The National President, Miss Agnes I. McCoy, of Fall River, and her suite honored the Tent with its presence, installing the new list of officers. They are as follows: President, Mrs. Lennie Chapman, sr. vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Turner, Jr. vice president, Mrs. May Robbins, secretary, Mrs. Alice Hopkins, treasurer, Mrs. Cora Thayer, guide, Mrs. Lila Russell, press correspondent, Mrs. Elsie Smith, chaplain, Mrs. Mary Smith, guard, Mrs. Annie Holbrook, assist. guard, Mrs. Grace Barbour, council, Mesdames Carrie Nason, Marcia Callahan, Mabel Dutton, musician, Mrs. Josephine Breen, patriotic instructor, Miss Hattie Jones, color bearers, Misses Helen Thayer, Mary Callahan, Elizabeth Barbour and Maude Solomon.

At the close of this impressive service, the National president presented Mrs. Hopkins, the retiring president, with a president's badge, and the incoming president, Mrs. Chapman, in behalf of the Tent, presented her with a tea wagon. The officers then retired and returned to the hall, each carrying a pink, which they in turn presented to the National president. Gifts were bestowed on each member of the installing officer's suite, also on the installing officer. The evening closed with the serving of refreshments.

THE SEARCHLIGHT CLUB

The Searchlight Club met at 13 Ravine street, the home of Mrs. A. A. Lawson, on Jan. 13th. After the usual business meeting, the president, Mrs. Frederick Sawyer, introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mr. Denys P. Meyers, corresponding secretary and librarian of the World Peace Foundation. His subject was "Why the United States does not enter the League of Nations." He commenced by reminding us that the government of our country had always had two great political parties, one more or less jealous of the other. After an almost uninterrupted reign of fifty years, the Republican party was defeated and the Democratic party was in power. Then came the "Great World War," with its horrors and its blunders. President Wilson made two serious errors. First, in asking for a Democratic Congress and second in taking a partisan group rather than a representative group of our ablest men to France with him.

When the program of the League was presented, it was found that most of its articles could be interpreted in several different ways, thus giving the politicians the chance to disagree, until the psychological time for the U. S. to join the League was passed.

SACHEM COUNCIL BOY SCOUTS INCORPORATED

Sachem Council, Boy Scouts, comprising Arlington, Belmont and Lexington, became Sachem Council Incorporated, at the annual meeting of the council, held in the gymnasium of the Methodist Episcopal church, Belmont, on Thursday evening, Jan. 13th, with the largest number of council members attending that has ever been present at an annual meeting. There was plenty of material for thought as well as satisfaction for those who go to make up the council, for it is this body that keeps the Boy Scout movement alive by looking after the financing of the movement.

This year, instead of having to listen to reports from the various departments, Scout Executive Richard A. Mellon had them in typewritten form and placed at each plate, so that during the time of the eating of the roast beef dinner, which was provided by the mothers of the Belmont scouts, and served by them, the members could peruse the reports and, no doubt, were able to get a better idea of the work than by listening to the reading of them.

President Harold L. Frost called the meeting to order and referred to a few of the leading matters in the reports. A. Allen Kimball of Arlington presented the treasurer's report. Scout Executive Mellon had a number of recommendations to make, and briefly reviewed the reports of the year. He highly praised the work of the various scout masters. Troop 8 of Arlington came in for extra praise on account of their committee work.

Charles H. Higgins of Arlington, read the report of the committee sent out some time ago to consider the matter of incorporating the council and this committee recommended that the incorporation be put through and the council was unanimous in their vote to do this.

MISS POWERS, Prop.

The books, and all belongings of Sachem council were then turned over to Sachem Council, Inc.

It will be remembered that a short time ago the Boy Scout movement lost one of its most ardent workers in Albert B. Taylor, who moved away, which made it necessary for him to give up his position as commissioner. At the meeting Thursday evening, George B. C. Rugg presented a set of resolutions on the work of Mr. Taylor. It was voted to spread these on the records and also send a copy to Mr. Taylor.

Probably one of the most important matters of the evening was that of fixing the date of a drive for a fund with which to conduct the work of the council. It was definitely decided that this drive, or whatever it may be called later, would be held April 5, 6 and 7 in the three towns.

Warren H. Blaisdell of Belmont, who was appointed commissioner in place of Mr. Taylor, reported that the committee on the annual Fathers' and Sons' night had voted to hold the affair in Belmont this year. The date is Thursday, March 24. More particulars will be sent the troops later.

Camp Oak, the new permanent camp for the council, came in for much favorable mention during the evening and there will be a big housewarming at the camp in the near future and on a date to be announced later.

The annual election of officers was held, resulting as follows:—Harold L. Frost of Arlington, president; Charles H. Higgins, of Arlington, Amos S. Mills of Belmont and Sydney R. Wrightington of Lexington, vice-presidents; Allen Kimball of Arlington, treasurer; Warren H. Blaisdell, commissioner, and national council member, and Seth T. Gano, member at large to the council.

The evening closed with a view of some moving pictures taken last summer at Camp Barker, the camp of the Waltham council troops.

RECENT DEATHS

JAMES F. BEEDLE

The funeral of James F. Beedle of Arlington, but formerly of Somerville and Cambridge, a civil engineer, who designed the "white way" lights and police spotlights in the city of Boston, was held Sunday at 2.30 p. m. in the Long chapel, 1979 Mass. avenue, North Cambridge, with the Rev. David Fraser, pastor of the West Somerville Congregational Church, officiating. Burial was in the family lot in the Cambridge cemetery.

Mr. Beedle was born in Maine on Feb. 25, 1868, the son of Melville C. and Katherine (Spring) Beedle, and he attended the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He was associated in business for about 15 years, until he retired two years ago, because of poor health, with the Lundin Electric and Machine Company in Boston. It was through this concern which provided the lights mentioned above that Mr. Beedle designed them. He married Lillie M. Hunnewell in 1896, who died 17 years ago. Surviving him are a daughter, Miss Eleanor Beedle, and a son, John H. Beedle, both of Shawnee road, Arlington.

WINIFRED B. GOODWILLIE

The funeral of Miss Winifred B. Goodwillie of Arlington, who was the first open-air teacher in the Cambridge schools, teaching under-nourished children in the Wyman Open-air school, took place Sunday, Jan. 16th, at 2.30, in the North Avenue Baptist church of which she had been a prominent member. The services were conducted by Rev. S. W. Lockwood, acting minister of the church. The love and respect in which she was held was attested to in the great profusion of flowers and in the unusually large number present. A friend of the family sang favorite selections of Miss Goodwillie. The burial was in the family lot in the Cambridge cemetery.

Miss Goodwillie was born in Boston, on Aug. 22, 1882, the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth M. and the late Walter S. Goodwillie. She attended the Cambridge schools, and later was graduated from the Salem state normal school with the class of 1903. She had since taught school in Cambridge, first in the Taylor School, and then for 11 years as an open-air teacher, being forced to retire about

DO YOU KEEP PACE WITH FASHION?

You wouldn't think of wearing the frocks that were fashionable in your grandmother's time. Modern clothes are too sensible and lovely.

You wouldn't think of getting your water from the town pump. Modern plumbing is too great a convenience.

But WOULD YOU THINK of spending long weary, backbreaking hours at the business of keeping clean? Grandmother did because there was no other course open to her. The modern housewife can settle this question for herself by studying the advantage afforded by laundry service.

A. H. S. Basketball Team Wins Exciting Game

In one of the most exciting and closest basketball games here in a long time, the High School team defeated Cambridge Latin School team 22 to 18 in the local High school gymnasium, Friday evening, Jan. 14. It looked as if the local boys were going to take their first defeat up to the last few minutes of play, for it was nip and tuck all the way through. The first period ended with the score, Cambridge 3 and Arlington 1. The second period, which ended the half, was Arlington 10, Cambridge 7. End of the third period, Arlington 12, Cambridge 10, and then the final score, 22 to 18 at the end of the game. Two more evenly matched teams have never played here and the Arlington style of play was broken up many times by

Cambridge. In the last period the two teams tied at 16 with only a few minutes to play. McNamara then scored a basket for Arlington after a scrimmage under the Cambridge basket in which practically every player on both teams touched the ball. This did not last long, for Cambridge came along with another basket. With the score tie, and only about three minutes to play, the game went fast and hard, both teams trying for the basket which meant the winning of the game. Joe Donahue tallied two. This made the game certain for Arlington. The game was free from anything that bordered on undue roughness. There were many times that baskets were narrowly missed by both teams, perfect shots being made for the basket but the ball circling around the rim and dropping outside. Cambridge came here with a team that has been playing this game for some time as a team outside the school. They were well organized.

As an added attraction on last Friday evening the second team defeated the Cambridge second team, 16 to 8. This game was also a fast one with the local boys keeping the Cambridge outfit from scoring in the last period. Here also is a fast aggregation of boys who in another season will go in to make up the regular team. They are likely to make good.

Playing on the first team were: Lowder and Friley, at r. f.; Donahue, f.; Driscoll, c.; Beasley, g.; and McNamara and Keefe at lg.

GLOUCESTER HIGH PLAYS BASKETBALL TEAM TONIGHT

Coach Ralph C. Henricus of the High school basketball team has a stiff game picked for the local squad for this (Friday) evening in the High school gymnasium. Gloucester High will be the contending team. They have an excellent record at playing this game. Those who have witnessed the Arlington boys' games well know what they can do and how they can speed up when the time comes for them to make the baskets to win. Gloucester is rated as just such another team. They hope to break the Arlington long string of victories. The game starts at 7.45.

WELLS HIGH ROLLER

Wells of Team E was the high roller in the Community Club bowling matches rolled Friday evening of last week on the Arlington Alleys, his 118 being best. In the matches Team C won all four points from Team D; Team A won three from Team F and Team E won three from Team B.

ZEVS IN THE LEAD

In the Knights of Columbus League matches rolled last week on the Arlington and the Regent Alleys, the Zevs took a firmer hold on first place, winning all four points from the Rebels. The Old Timers, by taking four from the Whistlers, are now in second place. James Kelley of the Carriers, was the high single string man with 116. The other matches resulted as follows: Fusiliers won three from the Wags; Lakeviews won four from the Fillers; Elcos and Wacos broke even; Bruins won three from the Juniors, and the Auctioneers won three from the Carriers.

KELLEY IS CAPTAIN OF CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM

James Kelley, the young runner of the high school cross-country team that cleaned up some of the races last season and incidentally made one new record for school boys, has been elected captain of the squad for this season. He succeeds his brother, John, who held the position last season. Both boys are among the best in athletics that the school has ever produced and not only are they proficient in athletics, but both are excellent students, which goes to show that athletics do not interfere with studies if the student will but apply himself to his work.

ARLINGTON BOY WINS GAME FOR AGGIES

Another one of Arlington's athletes came into the limelight last week, when by his clever play, under a handicap, won the game for his college. This was Joe Forest, captain of the M. A. C. varsity hockey team, which opened its season January 13 on its home rink by winning from Bates, 2-1, in a hotly contested game. Forest, who was also captain of the 1926 team, is in the class of 1927. He broke a rib in a scrimmage the week previous but he pluckily went into the game and scored the winning point in the second overtime period.

EVERETTS BEATEN BY A. H. S. BASKETBALL TEAM

Defeating the fast Everett High basketball team by a score of 24 to 18 on Tuesday afternoon in the High School gymnasium, was quite a victory for the local boys. Everett high came here the favorites and those who have followed the game felt that Everett was to be the winner, but Arlington started in at the outset to play and played hard, and were met by stubborn opposition. Fisher, the star of the Everett team, was well covered in this game, and did not have his usual run of a long string of baskets. On the other hand, Everett covered Joe Donahue so well that he also was kept from scoring many times. There were as many as three men covering him some of the time in an effort to keep him from scoring. In the first period the score stood Everett 6, Arlington 3.

In the second period, Arlington started to pull away from their opponents, and at its close the score stood Arlington 16, Everett 9. The second half or opening of the third period saw some fast and hard play with both teams battling for tallies, but the game was marked with no undue roughness by either team. This period closed with the score, Arlington 20 and Everett 14. The last period was one of the fastest ever seen here, and Arlington surely showed its superior playing. Beasley, from back position, shot three goals from the floor, each time from the center of the gym and making perfect throws. Lowder made four shots from the floor and Donahue, three. The other basket from the floor was made by Driscoll. The only two goals from fouls were made by Donahue. Fisher made 13 of the points of the Everett team, and Hines made four. Both are considered among the best of the school boy players, aside from Arlington, on the circuit.

Between the halves, the second teams of both schools battled and this was a win for Everett by a score of 17 to 14.

MENOTOMY CHAPTER D. A. R. HOLD INTERESTING MEETING

The regular meeting of Menotomy Chapter, D. A. R., was held January 14th in St. James' Parish house, the Regent, Miss Caroline D. Higgins, presiding. The Chapter will hold a food sale February 3rd, in the rooms of the Arlington Visting Nursing Association rooms. The time was extended for a week on the donations to be sent to Ellis Island. The following delegates were elected to represent the Chapter at the State Conference to be held in Boston at Hotel Statler (if completed at that time) March 18th:—the regent, Miss Higgins, the vice Regent, Mrs. Eugene R. Vinal, Mrs. Charles F. L. Morton, Mrs. Charles F. Atwood. The alternates are Miss Frances Wyman, Mrs. Belle C. Wheeler, Miss Mary Winchester, Mrs. Mortimer H. Wells, Mrs. Rufus W. Blake, Mrs. Elliot R. Barker, Mrs. Horace W. Clark and Mrs. George O. Russell.

The delegates and alternates were also chosen to represent the Chapter at the National Conference to be held at Washington in April.

The speaker was Mrs. George B. C. Rugg and in introducing her the Regent paid a graceful tribute to her ability to speak on subject, "Revolutionary Relics." Mrs. Rugg interpreted her topic to embrace the Biographies written the past year of persons known in history, referring chiefly to Biographies of George Washington. The book on Washington, written by Paul Leicester Ford, was spoken of but the Biographies written by Rupert Hughes and by W. E. Woodward were more definitely described and compared. Mr. Hughes has tried to humanize Washington—he brings out fact that he believed in slaves and the extent of Washington's responsibility for the cause of the French and Indian War—also the influence that the platonic friendship of Washington for Mrs. Sally Cary Fairfax had upon his life. Mr. Woodward emphasized the fact that Washington was an aristocrat and that his greatest passion was to acquire land; that he was not a military genius, but considers courage, fortitude and honesty to be the key note of his character. Biographies on Jefferson and others were briefly discussed.

A social hour followed and tea was served by the Hospitality Committee.

tion and turned back a small unexpended balance. Earl A. Ryder, chairman of the committee on added school accommodations, gave a resume of the school problem, giving figures of the number of pupils in each school building, showing that every school in the town was over crowded, many having two more classes than the school should accommodate. Elliott R. Barker, chairman of the memorial to the World War Veterans, made no report other than one of progress and promised something definite for the annual March meeting. J. Howard Hayes, chairman of the committee sent out to look into the matter of a playground near the Heights Reservoir, reported that the owner of the large tract of land that to its mind was the only available piece of property for the purpose, had refused to consider either leasing or selling. He referred to the large tract near the Junior High West that the town owns that could be developed.

The meeting was adjourned at 10.15.

Junior West Flashes

The monthly reports of attendance again show the Junior West leading with 97.4% and the High School with 93.9.

Bob Emery broadcast over the radio last Thursday evening Junior High School West had 88% membership in the Junior Safety Council. He has only two more weeks to announce and we are striving to have our school enrolled 100% in the council. Eighty-three people have not yet done two acts, recited the pledge and passed in their blanks.

The following pupils went to the meeting of the League of School Publications which was held in Holbrook, January 19: John Parker, Betty Greig, Harold Magnuson, Andrew Ogren, Berkeley Cue, Ethel Knight, Joseph Tully, Eben Threl. They were accompanied by Miss Forrest and Miss Leopold.

On Wednesday, January 12, the Jr. High School West defeated the first team of the Parmenter Jr. High School in basketball with a score of 24 to 14. The second teams fought strenuously and completed their game with a tie score of 5 to 5. Congratulations to our basketball team. It was a good game and reflects credit on the team and the coach.

The scholarship banner was awarded for the second time to Room 30, on the basis of a standing of 25 3-10 points. The two Beacon banners which have been hung in the hall go to Room 12 and Room 11 respectively for having completed their quota and even surpassed it in certain instances. Good work!

We are glad to welcome to our faculty, Miss Ellen Fitzpatrick, a former teacher in the Stoughton Junior High School. She has come to teach Social Science in the ninth grade; a vacancy caused by the leave of absence granted to Miss Ednah Warren.

The monthly social and business meeting of the Friendly Class of Calvary M. E. Church was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the newly elected president, Mrs. Carl S. Nelson, 10 Marion road.

Traffic officer William A. Scanlon proved a hero Thursday morning when he succeeded in stopping a runaway horse belonging to Cornelius Cadigan as it came dashing down the avenue.

bins Memorial Town Hall on Tuesday evening. A great amount of praise is due the committee that had charge of the affair, for the party was one of the best conducted, as well as one of the prettiest of a similar affair held here in some time. This was so on account of the large varied colored dresses worn by number of young people attending, the young ladies adding interest to the party. Aiding in the effects of the hall were two spot lights on either corner of the hall. Suspended from the center of the ceiling in the main hall was a large crystal ball and on this a spot of light of changing colors played. The lights in the hall were dimmed and the light radiated from these spot lights and crystal ball, making a lovely picture. At times the red, green or yellow lights were played directly onto the dancers and this gave a striking effect, especially to the dresses of the young ladies.

Special guests of the lodge were Judge Joseph T. Zottoli, Senator Charles C. Warren, Prof. Felix Forte, Selectman Frederick W. Hill and Chief Thomas O. D. Urquhart. These and the visitors from other lodges and sections, were received by the reception committee, composed of Raffaele Spadea, chairman, who is president of the local lodge; Michael Fredo, Guiseppe Barrese, Frank Guarente, Domenico Galluccio, Ludovico DeCane, Antonio Gigliotti, Angelo Caterino, Raffaele Santoliquido, Michele Internante and Benigno Tranfaglia. Everyone attending was made to feel that they were welcome at this merry party of the lodge.

Raffaele D. Guarente was chairman of the committee and he was ably assisted by Frank Lo Presti, secretary; Ernesto Guarente, treasurer; Silvestro DiDonato, Amedeo D'Auria, Anthony Vellone, Arthur Vendolf, Nunzio Mannini, Marino Scaffiti, Frank Tortorici, Eugenio Marchini, Frank Guarente, Palmer Guarente and Benigno Santosuosso, assistants.

Raffaele D. Guarente was chief marshal of the dancing. His assistants were Amedeo D'Auria, Frank Marchini, Frank LoPresti, and Frank Tortorici. A number of novelty numbers were introduced during the evening and there were several favor numbers during which time all present were given favors to help add to the merriment of the occasion.

At intermission time the Hardy Catering Company furnished the ices and cakes.

PRISCILLA QUARTETTE HEARD IN ARLINGTON

The A. F. G. Brotherhood of the Arlington Heights Baptist church engaged the services of the Priscilla Quartette to give a concert in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Friday evening, January 14. The concert was of the highest order and was deserving a full house, but weather conditions evidently interfered somewhat, although the hall was well filled.

The members of the quartette were heard in ensemble as well as in solo numbers, and were assisted in the program by Mildred Bent, violinist, whose playing was enthusiastically received, also that of the reader, Regina H. McLenna. One feature, not on the program, that gave special delight to the audience, was the singing of Annie Laurie by Mrs. John Heiser, accompanied by Mr. Heiser, the accompanist of the evening. Mrs. Heiser's pleasing personality, coupled with her sweet voice, so often heard among her friends in the Baptist church, furnished a great deal of pleasure. Mr. Harvey Giles and Mr. Thomas Woodworth were largely responsible in arranging the entertainment. Members of the Brotherhood acted as ushers. The program given, follows:—

WORD FROM ARTHUR BIRCH

Mr. Arthur Birch writes from Moana Hotel, Honolulu, Hawaii, Jan. 3rd, that he and Mrs. Birch are ideally situated in that beautiful hotel, which is on the beach where the bathers are disporting in water 70 degrees. He found the city much to his liking, with fine roads lined with all sorts of tropical trees and flowers. He also says that there are excellent street railways, four fares for twenty-five cents. On New Year's day he writes that four persons were killed and forty injured in motor accidents. Everybody seems to have a car. They were looking forward to a visit to the volcano.

—The next meeting of the Arlington Historical Society will be held on Tuesday, January 25th, at eight o'clock, in the vestry of the Unitarian church. The speaker will be Mr. William A. Muller.

ANNUAL MEETING ORTHODOX CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Orthodox Congregational church was held Friday evening, January 14th. A dinner by an out-of-town caterer was served at 6.45, under the direction of the deacons of the church. All the reservations had been engaged, but the severe rain storm coming after a heavy fall of snow, made streets almost impassable and with the unusual amount of illness in the town and among church members tended to decrease the number present. Dinner was served by a large corps of colored waiters.

The business meeting was called to order by the moderator, Henry A. Kidder. The warrant for the meeting was read by the clerk, Albert W. Wunderly. Then followed reports from the chairman of the several church committees and departments of the church. The minister, Rev. Edward Allen Morris, gave a report of what he had accomplished since assuming his duties as minister of the church in September, that showed that he had been active, not only in one department of his work, but in every one. He also outlined plans for the year that will tend to broaden the usefulness of the church in the community.

The following list of officers were

HARVARD FIRST MET

YALE TEAM IN 1875

S. C. Bushnell Was On this First Yale Team That Was Beaten by Harvard.

The following article was clipped from the New York Times and written by Parke H. Davis. It was not only of interest because of its historic value, but also from the fact that S. C. Bushnell mentioned, was for years a prominent and influential citizen of Arlington, and is now the Minister Emeritus of the Orthodox Congregational Church of Arlington. (Editor.)

BY PARKE H. DAVIS

The series of football games between Harvard and Yale, originated in 1875. Harvard, the year before, had been introduced to the beauties of the rugby style of game by McGill University in a game played at Cambridge, May 15, 1874, in which Harvard played McGill to a draw.

Harvard, in turn, desired to introduce Yale to the rugby type of play and therefore challenged the Blue. Yale promptly accepted, but demanded certain concessions in the Rugby Union rules which Harvard granted.

The game was played at New Haven, November 13, 1875. Harvard winning by four goals to Yale's none.

Among the many brilliant names that gleam at us from that old lineup are Herbert Corey Leeds, A. C. Tower and W. S. Seamans, of Harvard, and John P. Peters, S. C. Bushnell and William Arnold, of Yale.

From 1875 to the present, Harvard and Yale annually have met, except in 1885, when foot ball was prohibited at Harvard; in 1888, 1895 and 1896, when quarrels over rules interfered, and in the war-time years of 1918 and 1919.

These Harvard-Yale foot ball fields have been veritable training grounds for a number of great Americans. From the Harvard players came Robert Bacon, the late Ambassador to France; Robert Winsor, a famous Boston banker; John Simpkins, long a member of Congress from Massachusetts, and Roland W. Boyden, late "unofficial observer" at the League of Nations.

Among the members of the Yale eleven in the games against Harvard appear the names of Walter Camp, Frederic Remington, the artist and sculptor; George W. Woodruff, Attorney General of Pennsylvania; Vance McCormick, the Democratic National chairman, who elected Woodrow Wilson; Governor Pin-chot and the late James A. McCrea, a former vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Harvard-Yale games also have been the birth place of many of foot ball's greatest tactical mechanisms. Against Yale in 1887 Harvard produced the original tandem formation of the backs, an array of all four backs in a straight line at right angles to the rushline.

In 1892 Harvard also sprung upon Yale the original flying wedge, a play whose flying principal revolutionized tactics and eventually forced a radical reform in the entire game.

Similarly in the early '90's it was Harvard that produced against Yale the "turtle back," one piece leather foot ball suits, the "push plays," both of which were the forerunners of the entire brood of later momentum-mass plays.

But it is for amazing individual exploits that the Harvard-Yale series has been always especially distinguished. In 1876, the first year under the regular Rugby rules, O. D. Thompson, of Yale, won the game by kicking a goal from the field while in full flight, and in 1877 repeated the victory by the same performance.

In 1880 it was perennial Walter Camp, who achieved glory by kicking a very difficult goal from the field. In 1883 Wyllys Terry and H. B. Twombly, of Yale, scored two long and difficult field goals.

In 1884, H. R. Flanders, of Yale, intercepted a pass from the Harvard quarter to the Harvard fullback for a drop-kick at Yale's goal and raced one hundred yards for a touchdown. In 1886, G. A. Watkinson kicked a field goal from the intersection of the 40-yard line with the side line.

And now the Crimson stars appear in scoring roles. In 1890, James Lee, of Harvard, picked up a Yale fumble and ran forty yards for a touchdown. A few moments later another Yale fumble occurs. This time it is Dudley Dean, of Harvard, father of one of the present Harvard players, who picks up the fumble and dashes to touchdown and to victory.

Ten years now came and went in which momentum mass plays won victories by short line plunges and the long distance scoring star was without an occupation, although such brilliant players as Morrison, Bliss, McCormick, Butterworth, Stillman, Thorne, Reid, Dibblee and Haughton did the scoring.

In 1900, S. L. Coy, Yale, elder brother of "Ted," picked a Harvard pass out of the air and ran fifty yards for a touchdown. A. H. Sharpe later kicked a goal from the field. The next year it was Carl Marshall, of Harvard, who kicked a goal from the field from the 45-yard line in a game top heavy with Harvard scoring.

In 1907, the mighty Ted Coy did the double scoring, and in 1908, Percy Haughton sent Victor P. Kennard, a drop-kicking specialist into the game, for a moment in which he kicked a goal from the field and won the game, thereby establishing this now familiar practice. In 1909, again it was Ted Coy who did the double scoring.

Within recent memories rise the great scoring stars, Storer, Brickley and Coolidge, of Harvard, and Pond and Mallory, of Yale.
